3. Micro Enterprise Grant Award Recommendation's by the Micro Enterprise Committee

Pierce reviewed the status of the $300,000 Micro Enterprise Grant, awarded the County from NYS OCR. There is still $135,000 left to award and the funds need to be expended by June 23, 2023. Pierce recently asked Scott Gardner to put out a second notice of the grant availability in the Chamber News as well as the local papers. There are 6 awardees that have been approved, 3 of which have asked for anticipation notes and 2 have received the note funds. We have one grant review complete waiting for committee review and 5 new interests have recently been given the application process information. Pierce added that if any of the Board members knows of a business owner that may qualify and has a need, to send them our way.

3. Other Business

C. Berwanger asked about the status of Dream Lake Campground, whom had received funding from the BAC in December for an expansion project. Pierce state that he has received updates from the owner and drone pictures of the progress on the project.

The owner has reported hopes to be complete in July.

Pierce updated the Board on the Silverlaken Project in Silver Springs stating that there are additional cabins going up this year as the owner works toward completing the project.

Pierce mentioned that the Letchworth Valley Camp Ground recently closed on the loan with the banks and the BAC, the owner is already bringing in interest through marketing and the project is moving forward quickly.

Chairman Dadd asked for an update on the River Spring Lodge in Bennington, in which Pierce stated that the business is for sale. The River Spring Lodge is a boutique lodge and restaurant and Dave Hamer has been the chef. Hamer's is also a minister and has been gifted a church in Attica which he wants to devote his attention to.
