Call Us Today To See if you Qualify for one of Our Incentive Programs!

Tax Savings:

New York State Law provides the WCIDA with the authority to abate or exempt taxes to qualifying projects, thus allowing a company to improve cash flow at a critical time during its growth.

These tax incentives include:

- Property tax relief from county, school, town and village taxes that result from new construction or expansion.
- Exemption of sales tax for non - production equipment, furnishings and construction materials.
- Exemption from mortgage recording taxes, if a mortgage is required to finance the project.

T.J. Marquart & Sons - Gainesville

Business Financing Programs:

The WCIDA may assist in the financing of business projects through several low interest loan programs, subject to borrower eligibility.

Financing Programs include:

- Business Development Loan Fund
- Participation loans with local banks
- Industrial Revenue Bonds
- Community Partners for SBA 504 Loans

Site Development:

Arcade Business Park– Base Technology Building

The WCIDA promotes, develops and/or rehabilitates industrial sites throughout the county in order to encourage new commercial activity.

Grant Assistance:

The WCIDA is constantly working with a variety of local, state and federal agencies to stay attuned with new and existing programs that could benefit local companies.

The WCIDA works with the following agencies:

- Wyoming County Business Center
- Wyoming County Business Assistance Corporation
- Empire State Development Corp.
- Finger Lakes Regional Economic Development Council
- Office of Community Renewal
- NYS Environmental Conservation
- Workforce Investment Board
